

Homonyms

What is a homonym?

Homonyms are words that are spelled and pronounced like another word, but have different meanings.

Examples:

Affect-change

Effect-result or consequence

Forward-moving to the front, ahead

Foreword-a group of words that come before the main words of a book

Lead-metal

Led-was the leader

Right-correct; not left

Write-scribble

To-toward

Too-also

Very-much

Vary-differ

Your-belonging to you

You're-you are

Principal-most important

Principle-belief

Ascent-climb

Assent-agreement

Know-have knowledge

No-opposite of yes

Buy-purchase

By-beside

Bye-short for goodbye

There-at that place

Their-belonging to them

They're-they are

